

PLANNING YOUR GIFT TO THE METROPOLITAN MUSEUM OF ART

Since its beginnings more than a century ago, the Metropolitan Museum has received generous support from a distinguished group of friends who have, with their gifts and personal commitment, built it into one of the most encyclopedic museums in the world.

There are a variety of ways in which friends of the Museum can maximize their support. A bequest by will continues to provide one important avenue. In addition, there are ways of benefiting the Museum that have immediate tax advantages for donors. These plans may provide income for the donor and/or some other person, or they can be useful in transferring assets to one's heirs at a lower tax cost.

Such a gift will both perpetuate your long-standing commitment to the Museum and help assure that its riches will be there for future generations to enjoy.

Perhaps you have already made such a provision. If so, you are eligible for membership in The William Society. To let us know, please contact the Planned Giving Program, The Metropolitan Museum of Art, 1000 Fifth Avenue, New York, New York 10028-0198, or by email at planned.giving@metmuseum.org. For more information on ways of supporting the work of the Metropolitan through estate planning, please visit the Museum's website at www.metmuseum.org in the Planned Giving section under Give and Join.

The Museum wishes to thank particularly: Mayor Michael R. Bloomberg; City Council Speaker Christine C. Quinn; Chair of the City Council Finance Committee Domenic M. Recchia, Jr.; Chair of the City Council Cultural Affairs, Libraries, and International Intergroup Relations Committee Jimmy Van Bramer; Comptroller John C. Liu; First Deputy Mayor Patricia E. Harris; Commissioner of Cultural Affairs Kate D. Levin; Commissioner of Parks and Recreation Adrian Benepe; Manhattan Borough President Scott M. Stringer; City Council Member Daniel R. Garodnick; City Council Member Robert Jackson; City Council Member Melissa Mark-Viverito; and other members of the New York City Council.

The State of New York again provided valuable support of the Museum through the New York State Council of the Arts. We thank especially Governor Andrew Cuomo; Assembly Speaker Sheldon Silver; State Senate Majority Leader Dean G. Skelos; and our local representatives in Albany, State Senator Liz Krueger and Assembly members Daniel Quart and Linda B. Rosenthal.
